

James and Rachel Lowrie Family Awards

Application Deadline: Thursday, February 14,
2020

The James and Rachel Lowrie Family Awards is given in recognition of a junior or senior whose oral and written performance in English courses at Iowa State University demonstrates outstanding growth, perception, and capability in the study of literature.

CANDIDATES WILL BE NOMINATED BY A FACULTY MEMBER and selected by a committee of staff and students. Interested applicants may ask faculty members to nominate them or faculty members may inform students of their willingness to serve as nominators. Faculty members should email their nominations (either as attachments or directly within the body of the email) to Christiana Langenberg, Advising Coordinator, clang@iastate.edu. These letters should specifically address the student's "outstanding growth, perception, and capability in the study of literature."

Completed applications (including this page and a form cover sheet) should be returned to an English undergraduate adviser, or taken to 203 Ross.

* * *

Nominator _____

Classes you have taught this student: _____

Nominee _____

Address _____

E-mail address _____

Student ID # _____

Telephone _____

Adviser _____ Major _____

Classification Jr. Sr.

Graduation Date: _____

GPA in the major _____ Cumulative GPA _____

Department of English